DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-66, drawn to a trocar, classified in class 606, subclass 185.
- II. Claim 67, drawn to a method of sealing a surgical access device, classified in class 128, subclass 898.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions group I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product. See MPEP § 806.05(h). In the instant case the process as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product such as suture retainer.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

This application also contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species. Claim 1 is generic to the following disclosed patentably distinct species:

Art Unit: 3731

- I. The species as best exemplified by fig. 3
- II. The species as best exemplified by fig. 10
- III. The species as best exemplified by fig. 26
- IV. The species as best exemplified by fig. 28
- V. The species as best exemplified by fig. 30
- VI. The species as best exemplified by fig. 32
- VII. The species as best exemplified by fig. 38
- VIII. The species as best exemplified by fig. 39
- IX. The species as best exemplified by fig. 40
- X. The species as best exemplified by fig. 41
- XI. The species as best exemplified by fig. 42
- XII. The species as best exemplified by fig. 43
- XIII. The species as best exemplified by fig. 44
- XIV. The species as best exemplified by fig. 46
- XV. The species as best exemplified by fig. 51
- XVI. The species as best exemplified by fig. 56

The species are independent or distinct because the inventions have a materially different design or mode of operation.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to also elect a single disclosed species, even though this requirement is traversed. Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Art Unit: 3731

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
